The Acid Test – DeciPHering the Osiris Myth

So far we have had PHanes, the knePH, orPHic eggs, hermaPHrodites and baPHomet – all in the context of parthenogenesis.

Adding to this list, everyone knows that the PHoenix can re-incarnate all by itself (albeit every ~500 years).

But what's the back story with the sPHinx and the PHaraohs?

Let's take a look at the OSIRIS MYTH – the most elaborate and influential story in ancient Egyptian mythology.

Parts of the myth appear in a wide variety of Egyptian texts, from funerary texts and magical spells to short stories. The story is, therefore, more detailed and more cohesive than any other ancient Egyptian myth. Yet no Egyptian source gives a full account of the myth, and the sources vary widely in their versions of events. Greek and Roman writings, particularly on Isis and Osiris by Plutarch, provide more information but may not always accurately reflect Egyptian beliefs. Through these writings, the Osiris myth persisted after knowledge of most ancient Egyptian beliefs was lost, and it is still well known today.

In the beginning, Osiris is the King of Egypt with Isis as his Queen.

Osiris's brother Set (TyPHon) murders him to usurp the throne.

Set had Osiris's body parts scattered across the kingdom.

Isis, with the help of her sister nePHthys reassembled Osiris's corpse (with the exception of the PHallus) and resurrected her dead husband. The resurrection lasted long enough to conceive her son and heir – Horus.

Horus – the Widow's Son – conceived without a PHallus.

The OSIRIS MYTH is all about PARTHENOGEN-ISIS.

An earlier version of the Virgin and Child.

ISIS – QUEEN of HEAVEN.

A hieroPHant (Ancient Greek: ἱεροφάντης) is a person who brings religious congregants into the presence of that which is deemed holy. As such, a hieroPHant is an interpreter of sacred mysteries and arcane principles.

The word comes from ancient Greece, where it was constructed from the combination of ta hiera ('the holy') and phainein ('to show').

If we follow this line of reasoning, the origins and catalyst for the fall of man / woman appears to have occurred when the human genome was modified and a parthenogenic bastardised version was created – a bad copy indeed.

Hence the worship of the VIRGIN BIRTH, PHanes, baPHomet, (herm)aPHrodite, orPHic eggs, the knePH and the PHoenix.

The story of the Widow's Son is a good example of tales being re-told by different religions and cults through the ages.

Lucifer is the Latin name for the morning appearances of the planet Venus. It corresponds to the Greek names Phosphorus Φωσφόρος, “light-bringer”, and Eosphorus Έωσφόρος, “dawn-bringer”. The entity’s Latin name was subsequently absorbed into Christianity as a name for the devil.

Isaiah 14:12: How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! (KJV)

Revelation 22:16: I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star. (KJV)

Jesus: “I Am the Light of the World” (John 8:12)
